

FIRST BETROTHAL IN CLASS AMAZES BARNARD JUNIORS

Announcement at 1913's Class
Luncheon Brings Shower of Good Wishes.

Barnard College Sophomores—excuse me, they're juniors now—anyway the class of 1913 had its annual luncheon at the Hotel Majestic yesterday. This gathering was different from the spreads held during the year, when the sweet young things sit around on the floor in the "cold lunch room" and devour nut sandwiches, cake and caramels, and at the end give BOOM YA YAI BOOM YA YAI BULLY FOR THE BULLDOG! BOOM YA YAI! BOOM YA YAI!

For everything and everybody in sight, including Samuel Johnson, the college cat, who usually graces the occasion with his presence and daintily nibbles sardine sandwiches.

But at the annual luncheon, the 1913-ers sit on perfectly good chairs, and proceed decorously through the meal, giving only a few leady-like cheers for the after-dinner speakers.

"We can't cheer as we do at college," explained one vivacious miss, "for fear of frightening the waiters."

Although Samuel Johnson was unfortunately not able to be present on account of conflicting engagements, the 1913 building "Lucky" did not seem to miss him. "Lucky" had a gray green ribbon around his neck, and sat right in the middle of the table. Now, don't be alarmed, for "Lucky" is a paper-mache mascot.

After the girls had consumed the luncheon and the candy was going the rounds—for whoever heard of a Barnard feed without candy?—Miss Dorothy Kinch, chairman of the day, introduced Miss Priscilla Lockwood as toastmistress. Miss Josephine Meisha, Edith London, Miss Marguerite Allen, Miss Bloom Sperling, Miss Imogene Ireland and Miss Mary Stewart responded to toasts.

By far the most exciting event was the explanation of the favors. These were little bulldogs with shoes in their mouths. When Miss Lockwood announced that the shoe signified the first engagement in the class of 1913 great was the commotion.

"Who is it?" cried the excited girls. Only a few knew, and to allay the curiosity of the others, Miss Lockwood told them afterwards when the girl in question was surrounded by a throng of admiring and congratulatory classmates. It developed that she had been engaged a whole year and a half.

"How could she keep it secret?" exclaimed the girls breathlessly.

She is going to finish college, however, but she expects to graduate next year. To do this she is going to go to summer school, and to double up on her work next year. It was while she was trying to explain why she was doing college in three years that she inadvertently announced her engagement.

The committee in charge of the luncheon was Miss Dorothy Kinch, chairman; Misses Burgess, Kelley, Goldstein, Parks and Warren; Misses Ireland and Fero, ex-officio.

After the luncheon there was dancing.

HOW TO LIVE LONG

Use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as prescribed. It builds up the nerve tissue, tones the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood; it brings into play all the vital forces and stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to a healthy action, thereby improving the digestion and assimilation of the food and giving to the system its full proportion of nourishment.

Smith Gray & Co.

Foremost Clothiers Since 1845

Here, as a result of a six weeks' delay in our tailoring plant, are several thousand Summer Suits, comprising practically all of our Summer stock, which should have been ready May 1st.

There is the same generous assortment in both fabrics, designs and models which you have ordinarily found at the beginning of the season—all offered at such radical reductions as to move in the remaining four or five weeks what, in the natural course of events, would have taken ten to twelve weeks.

Included are practically all of our lightest weight Summer fabrics—Canadian crashes, homespun, velour flannels and light worsteds—as well as fabrics of every conceivable shade and design. You will find among them all the more advanced and many exclusive styles, many of which will not be found outside the Smith Gray & Co. stores for another season.

15.50 for two and three-piece Summer Suits—regularly 18.00, 20.00, 22.50 and 25.00.

Included in the assortment are Canadian homespun in metal, steel and Oxford grays, blue, brick brown, tan and olive shades, light and very light worsteds, velours, worsted chevrons in new gray, brown, tan and olive shades; as well as blue and black fancy serge-weave worsteds in stripe weaves, pencil stripes and silk mixtures. Among the models are two and three button designs for men, young men and boys.

22.50 for two and three-piece Summer Suits—regularly 27.50, 30.00 and 32.50.

You may choose from fine Canadian homespun and crashes in light tans, light grays, steel grays, olives, brick brown and Oxford blue shades, in Norfolk and English soft roll models; as well as all the new metal, steel and Oxford grays, and brick brown velour flannels in wale weaves, tennis stripe, silk stripe and double stripe weaves, in all soft and semi-soft roll padding English models. More than this, there are some seventy-five exclusive designs in worsteds, worsted chevrons, English cassimeres, velours, and many exclusive designs on black and blue grounds in stripes and silk mixtures.

Tomorrow, we shall sell the remainder at 50c, because the collection has dwindled down to a few colors—burnt straw, royal blue, red and white. But shades will harmonize with linen suits, and are so cool and attractive. Rough straws, with straight brims—several widths—and medium high crowns; black and self-color silk bands.
